Larry
& Christ

The Sage 1962-63

Theme

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts.

Dedication

Why do we dedicate the SAGE to you?

Because you came thru these doors at dawn, and didn't leave till dark, giving your day to youth--at times not a very rewarding occupation.

Because you helped to make this year of '62 the best year ever.

Because, through your forty years of teaching, you were there when we needed you most, we give to you the most precious gift we have to offer...the dedication of a year of work, a year of memories.

Miss McCarthy, we dedicate our yearbook to you.

Superintendent

ARMUND A. LARVIE

Due to ill health, Mr. Larvie is unable to be at his desk at the present time, but it is the hope and wish of the students that he will be able to return to his position very soon. Throughout his 14 years of service to the school he has done more than his share to promote the welfare of the youth of our community.

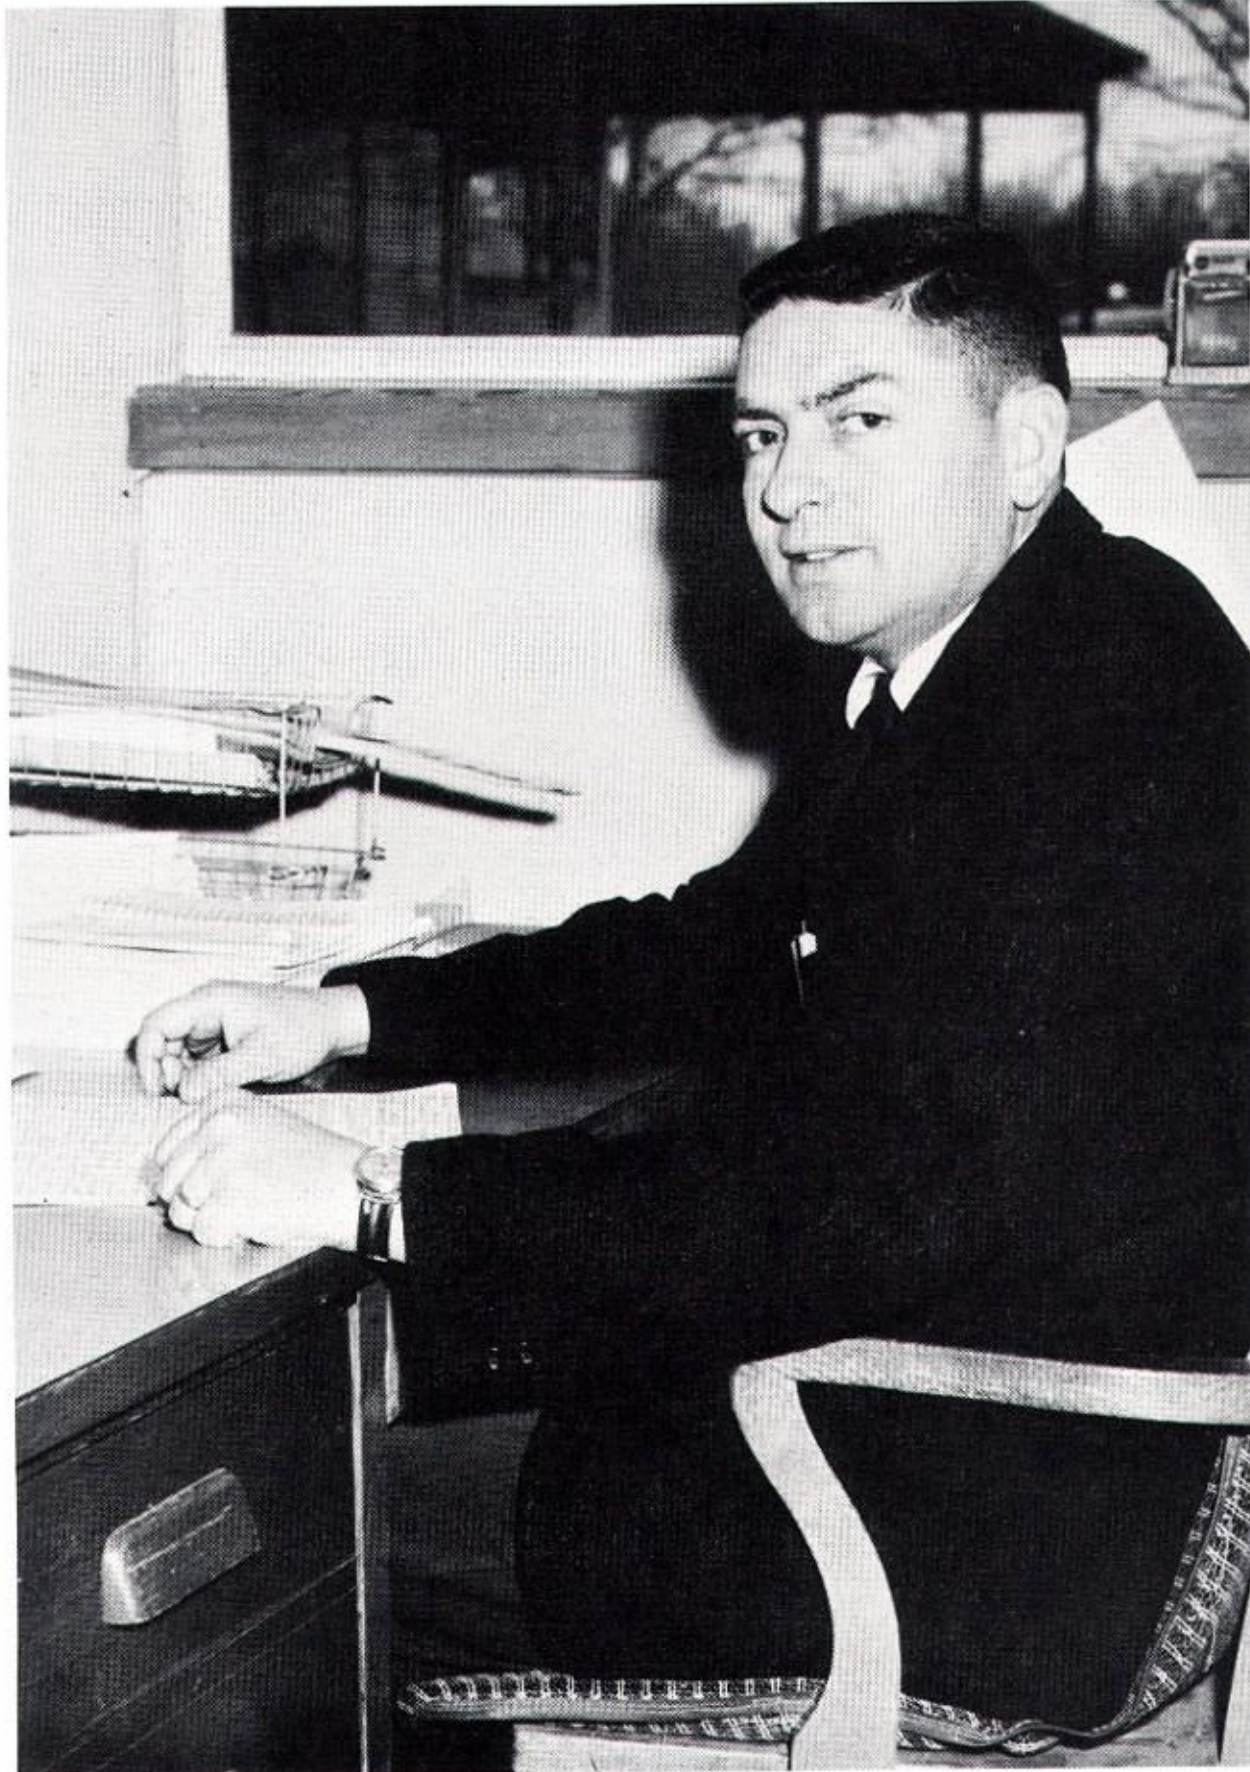

Principal

Congratulations to the class of 1963! It gives me a great pleasure to take this opportunity to wish you success in the future that lies ahead of you. It is the hope and prayer of your teachers and school administration that the academic and citizenship training you have received at HSHS will be rewarding to you.

JACK W. JENKINS

Vice-Principal and Guidance Director

To the Class of 1963:

You have reached the first important milestone in your academic careers. This should not be the last one, however. Each of you has an obligation to explore and develop your potential to the fullest degree. It is no longer applicable to strive to "reach for the moon." This has almost become a reality. Your generation must aspire to help quench man's thirst for knowledge beyond this point. You are committed to "reach for the stars." Good luck to each one of you in your future endeavors.

TRUMAN A. BAILLY

Dean of Girls

To be truly educated one must keep on learning all his life, benefiting from new ideas and experiences. By vicariously sharing the thoughts, dreams, philosophies, theories, and experiences of others through reading, one expedites his own learning progress. What a treasure there is stored in our libraries. But to possess it, one must dig for it. An old Arabic saying states that the wealth of the mind is the only true wealth. It cannot be taxed and you can take it with you. Read, read, and then read some more.

National Thespian Society is a non-secret, non-sectarian organization whose purpose is the advancement of standards of excellence in the dramatic arts.

Meritorious work in Thespians is recognized by a point awards system. By this system a student may gain stars for his pin and after he earns five stars or the equivalent of 60 points he is eligible to become an Honor Thespian.

Each year the Hermiston Troop, Number 1052 sponsors the all-school plays.

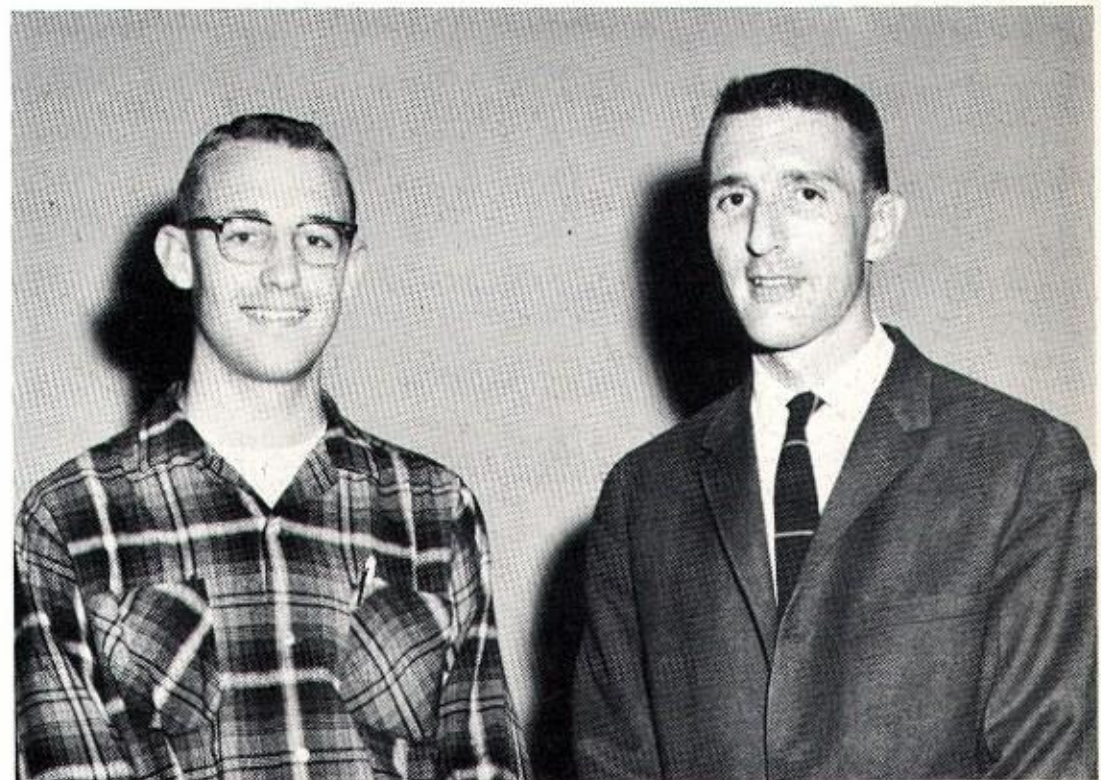

Mu Alpha Theta

Rally Squad

All five varsity cheerleaders attended Cheerleading School in July which was held on the Oregon State campus at Corvallis. Here they were taught new yells and cheerleading techniques by members of the National Cheerleaders Association. In competition with rally squads from all over Oregon, the HSHS girls received a trophy for leading two yells and being judged by all other schools.

Homecoming 1962

Junior Surptine

The noise parade which started off the gala festivities of Homecoming 1962 was one of the best HSHS has ever had.

The cheerleaders preceded the whole business in an old Ford pick-up, chanting "Go, fight! Win tonight!" Then came the Marching Band with the majorettes out front. About a hundred cars came next, all honking and roaring their motors. To accompany the cars was surptine composed of juniors.

The Homecoming Court was presented at half time and the queen was crowned by Bob Kivle.

The senior float was actually made up of two separate floats. The first depicted a bulldog in a football uniform in a sulky, with a Pendleton Buckeroo pulling it, of course. Behind that came the "prize" for winning the race--a huge gold trophy. Juniors had a half-football, used as a boat, with the theme "Sail over the Bucks." Sophomores had a goal post with a Bulldog getting ready to kick a Buck over it.

Foreign Exchange Student

Idros bin Idris

It is with love and admiration that we will leave with you, Idros, as you pass from the doors of this school to your homeland, Malaya.

You have helped to weave into our high school tapestry a pattern of wisdom and fair play not found in text books alone, but also in the strength of unity, cooperation, and purpose.

You are thought upon as a devoted and loyal friend because of your thoughtfulness and personal interest in each and everyone of us.

We hope that you will remember the opportunities and challenges that were ever-present through your many experiences at Hermiston Senior High School.

We want you to know you will always be a classmate to the graduating seniors and a friend to everyone. On leaving, we hope you will be able to return someday but until then, we will miss you.

Intramurals

Each noon HSHS's gym is full of students cheering their team on to victory. Throughout the year almost every student participates in one another activity. Added to the list this year is archery.

The junior boys captured the volleyball championship with a tremendous game record.

The sophomore girls dribbled the basketball championship away from the other classes in intramurals.

Gerry's team, composed of junior girls, won the championship in dodgeball this year.

The high scores on the archery team this spring were Earlene Johnston with 168, Claudia DeWolf and Beverley Hockett tied with a high of 182

Acknowledgments

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the people who have made this, our 1962-1963 Sage possible; especially Mr. Louis Lyons, our photographer, who spent many long hours taking and developing pictures for this yearbook. We want to thank all the merchants who generously purchased ads, thus helping in the financing of the annual. We also want to express our undying gratitude to Mr. Hempel, our adviser, who worked equally organizing this book and to all the other people who have helped in the formation of the Sage. Most of all, we want to thank all the people at R. Wallace Pischel, Inc. who do such a fine job in publishing our annual.

Farewell

As we pass slowly out of these doors that have seen so many come and go, all too quickly we hear the doors of the years past, quietly shutting behind us; and we go forth eagerly to open the doors to the future and whatever it may bring.

For when one door is shut---another opens.

I want to be good & good to you in school. Good luck in the future
